If you are a member of Word of Life Church, you are greatly appreciated. Our prayer is that you will continue to flourish here at WOL.

To get in touch with us, ask a question, get some more information, put in a prayer request, or speak with any of our team, please contact us via email at info@wordoflife-lcc.org or telephone our Church office on 0208 8577406 and 0793 0958097 Monday to Friday 10am to 2pm

To stay up to date with our activities, events and useful information, please check out our website: www.wordoflife-lcc.org.

God Loves You

God Loves YOU and wants you to have a relationship with Him through His son Jesus.

The Bible says that God so loved the world, that He gave His only Son, Jesus, so that whoever believes in him shall not die, but have eternal life (John 3: 16).
The first step to know more of God is to obey His Word and receive Jesus as your Lord and Saviour, by simply repenting of your sins and believing that Jesus has died on the cross and paid the price for you to be reconciled to God for ever. By doing that, you will receive a new life, the very life of God, within you, and you will become a child of God. If you want to make that step, please see below. These will explain to you more about it. Don't put it off, God has been waiting for you... Today is the day! God bless you.

GOD LOVES YOU!!!

step 1

GOD's Purpose: Peace and life God loves you and wants you to experience peace and life: abundant and eternal.

"we have peace with GOD through our Lord JESUS CHRIST." (Romans 5:1)

"I have come that they may have life in abundance." (John 10:10)

"for GOD so loved the world that he gave his only begotten SON, that whoever believes in him should not perish but have everlasting life." (John 3:16)

Why don't most people have this peace and abundant life that God planned for us to have?

step 2

The Problem: Our Separation God created us in his own image to have an abundant life. He did not make us as robots to automatically love and obey him. God gave us a will and a freedom of choice. We chose to disobey God and go our own wilful way. We still make this choice today. This results in separation from God.

"for all have sinned and fall short of the glory of GOD." (Romans 3:23)

"for the wages of sin is death, but the gift of GOD is eternal life in CHRIST JESUS, our Lord." (Romans 6:23)

Our attempts to reach GOD People have tried many ways to bridge this gap between themselves and God....

"there is a way that seems right to man, but in the end it leads to death." (Proverbs 14:12)

"but your iniquities have separated you from your GOD; your sins have hidden his face from you, so that he will not hear." (Isaiah 59:2)

No bridge reaches GOD... except one...

The Divine Nature and the process of Discipleship

Walking in Authority and Christlike Maturity

By Reverend Rowland Henshaw

The Christian journey is not merely a pursuit of knowledge, it is an invitation to transformation, a daily walk into the likeness of Christ, empowered by His own divine nature. This we hear in the teachings of Jesus and the exhortations of the apostles, believers are called to more than knowing scriptures; they are called to live, a life of discipleship. This process is central to walking in the authority we have in Christ, walk like Him, talk like Him and do what He did.

In Matthew 28:18-20, often referred to as the Great Commission, Jesus speaks with clarity and finality to His disciples:

"All authority has been given to Me in heaven and on earth. Go therefore and make disciples of all the nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all things that I have commanded you; and lo, I am with you always, even to the end of the age."

Here, Jesus declares the transfer of divine authority a commissioning of His followers to continue His mission on earth. This authority is not isolated; it is rooted in His identity as the Son of God and shared with all who follow Him. Discipleship, then, is the path by which all believers are conformed to His nature and empowered to walk in His footsteps.

Discipleship is the intentional and deliberate, transformation process of becoming like Jesus—

- mirroring His character,
- His quality of life,
- and walking in the authority He modelled.

It is not a matter of quoting scriptures but of a life shaped by imitation: "Be imitators of me, as I am of Christ" (1 Corinthians 11:1).

Discipleship is an intentional decision a daily resolve to grow in faith, to submit to the shaping of the Spirit, and to embrace the authority given to us by Christ.

It is a believer's journey into Christlikeness, a gradual, sometimes challenging, but ultimately a rewarding transformation. Without discipleship, new believers often remain spiritually immature, stagnant or sometimes turn away from the faith.

The absence of intentional growth can result in a faith that is lukewarm or stagnated, as many remain spiritual infants believing themselves to be mature.

The Process of Discipleship: 2 Peter 1:1-9

The apostle Peter gives a detailed outline of discipleship in 2 Peter 1:1-9. He writes to those "who have obtained like precious faith…by the righteousness of our God and Saviour Jesus Christ," reminding them that "His divine power has given to us all things that pertain to life and godliness, through the knowledge of Him…by which have been given to us exceedingly great and precious promises, that through these you may be partakers of the divine nature."

Peter identifies the Christian life as a process, a journey of forming habits that reflect Christ's character. This process is not passive but requires diligence—a conscious, consistent effort to add virtue upon virtue. He lists a progression of qualities that build upon one another:

- Faith
- Virtue
- Knowledge
- Self-control
- Perseverance
- Godliness
- Brotherly kindness
- Love

If these qualities abound, Peter assures, "you will be neither barren nor unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ." Also makes it clear to us that if we lack these virtues we will be "shortsighted, even to blindness."

Peter tells us that it is through God's divine power believers receive:

- Right standing with God
- Shared blessings among the faithful
- Grace—God's unmerited favour
- Peace with God
- Participation in the divine nature

As new creations, we have been given the power to operate in the same authority as Jesus, this we see in Jesus final statement as He is about to ascend to His father in heaven. Matthew 28:18-20

18 And Jesus came and spoke to them, saying, "All authority has been given to Me in heaven and on earth. 19 Go therefore and make disciples of all the nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, 20 teaching them to observe all things that I have commanded you; and lo, I am with you always, even to the end of the age." Amen.

- Go therefore
- Make disciples
- Baptise them
- Teach them

Jesus' commission is not only a call to mission but a transfer of authority. "All authority has been given to Me… Go therefore and make disciples…" The divine authority He possessed is entrusted to His disciples, who are not only to proclaim but be expression of His teachings, baptizing and teaching others to do likewise. We can only and truly express this nature as His disciples through discipleship. It is only through being discipled that believers can walk in the divine nature and authority, experiencing the fullness of life that comes from oneness with Christ.

The Same Works That I Did: John 14:12-14

In John 14:12-14, Jesus offers a remarkable promise:

"He who believes in Me, the works that I do he will do also; and greater works than these he will do, because I go to My Father. And whatever you ask in My name, that I will do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son."

Faith in Christ secures eternal life, but discipleship opens the door to living victoriously walking in the authority and divine nature that Jesus exemplified. Those who neglect discipleship may still inherit salvation, but they miss the abundant life and fruitfulness available in Christ.

The Daily Practice of Discipleship: Building Christlike Habits

Discipleship is not a one-time event but a daily discipline. Peter admonishes believers to "give all diligence" to be meticulous, conscientious, and persistent in forming godly habits. This "working out" of salvation (Philippians 2:12-13) is not a striving for acceptance, but a response to God's work within us. God desires our availability and cooperation as He shapes us from the inside out.

James emphasizes that faith without works is dead (James 2:19-20). It is not enough to say I am saved and a Christian, people should see the Christ we profess in us.

The Progression of Christlike Attributes

- Faith: The foundation of the believer's relationship with God.
- Virtue: Behaviour reflecting high moral standards, a life that brings glory to God.
- Knowledge: Intimacy with God, understanding His character, His calling, and our identity in Christ.
- Self-control: Mastery over one's emotions, desires, and actions. The story of Samson provides a good example, though anointed and knowledgeable, he lacked self-control, leading to his downfall.

- Perseverance: Steadfastness in the face of adversity. Elijah prayed until the rain came; Jesus endured the cross for the joy set before Him. Perseverance is a hallmark of spiritual maturity.
- Godliness: A life oriented toward God, reverencing Him in all things, not just as a Sunday ritual but as an everyday reality.
- Brotherly Kindness: Love and care for others, tangibly expressed through service and compassion. As Jesus said, "By this all will know that you are My disciples, if you have love for one another" (John 13:35).
- Love: The crowning and underpinning virtue. Paul declares, "Above all these things put on love, which is the bond of perfection" (Colossians 3:14). Love is both the motive and the measure of true discipleship.

Practical Outworking: Living as Disciples

Discipleship shows in the ordinary and the extraordinary daily choices, relationships, and responses. It is seen in persistent prayer, in forgiving others, in acts of kindness, in a heart that seeks after God's will above self-interest.

Paul's encourages in Philippians 2:12-13 to "work out your own salvation with fear and trembling" that our spiritual growth should be active and intentional. However, God supplies the power yet invites us to participate in this working. 13 for it is God who works in you both to will and to do for His good pleasure.

Likewise, in 2 Corinthians 13:5, believers are urged to examine themselves, to ensure that Christ lives in and through them.

5 Examine yourselves as to whether you are in the faith. Test yourselves. Do you not know yourselves, that Jesus Christ is in you? — unless indeed you are disqualified.

Christian maturity is not measured by the size of one's ministry, but by the depth of one's love and the consistency of one's character.
In conclusion Peter tells us, in 2 Peter 1:8-9.

"If these things are yours and abound, you will be neither barren nor unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ. For he who lacks these things is shortsighted, even to blindness, and has forgotten that he was cleansed from his old sins"

The process of discipleship is the journey into divine nature—a pathway marked by diligence, grace, and ever-increasing Christlikeness. It is the privilege and calling of every believer to not only know about Christ but to walk in His steps, to bear His image, and to reflect His love and authority in every sphere of life.

May we, with all diligence, pursue the habits and virtues that lead to maturity, so that the world may see in us the radiant life of Christ, to the glory of God the Father.

Team Profile

Yvonne Zammit

Hello! I'm Yvonne Zammit, and I am genuinely grateful for the opportunity to serve with the amazing family at Word of Life Church. As one of the Ministers, I lead the vibrant Welcome and Consolidation Team Ministry, where I oversee the integration of new members and ensure they feel welcomed and supported.

Growing up in a Christian home meant that attending church was an essential part of family life. I viewed God as a distant father figure who provided during difficult times. In my late teens, through my school teacher's testimony and the example of her house church community, I discovered a personal relationship with God through Jesus Christ. This realisation transformed my faith, encouraging me to deepen my relationship with Him and find my identity and purpose in Christ. Serving in the Kingdom of God has been my life's goal ever since.

Over the past six years, my beloved husband George and I have been deeply blessed and honoured to be called by God to serve as part of the warm, welcoming, and loving family of God – the Word of Life Church. We have been involved in projects within the church, and I, in particular, have been privileged to serve alongside a committed and motivated Welcome and Consolidation Ministry Team.

As a united and caring team, we cherish the privilege of serving alongside one another and welcoming every person who walks through the church doors. Our heart is to create an atmosphere that radiates warmth, encouragement, and belonging—where everyone, regardless of background or journey, can encounter God's grace and love in real and meaningful ways. Together, we strive to support, listen, and walk with each individual, celebrating joys, sharing burdens, and growing in faith as a family.

It has been a blessing to witness God's work through one of my favourite Bible verses: "But seek first the kingdom of God and His righteousness, and all these things shall be added to you." (Matthew 6:33).

To seek God's kingdom first is to make Him the centre of every thought, decision, and desire. It means placing God's will above our ambitions and trusting that He knows what is best for our journey. When we actively pursue His righteousness, we intentionally align our lives with His principles—choosing love over resentment, hope over fear, and service over self-interest.

Prioritising God is an invitation to look beyond our immediate needs and anxieties and to walk in faith, believing that as we focus on Him, every other aspect of our lives will fall into place according to His perfect plan. It is about letting God shape our priorities, fill our hearts, and guide our actions, trusting that when we surrender to Him, He will provide, protect, and lead us to fulfilment and peace.

I have a great appreciation for walking through the countryside and enjoying the scenic views. I also find fulfilment in drawing, sketching, and engaging in other creative pursuits. Furthermore, I would like to start learning a new language and playing the keyboard. I look forward to finding the time to further develop these interests.

We apologise for any inconvenience this may cause and appreciate your understanding and cooperation.

HOUSEKEEPING / BEING MINDFUL OF GOD'S HOUSE- REHOBOTH BUILDING

Mobiles - We encourage every congregational member to please switch off mobile phones during the service as we concentrate on worshipping God and hearing His Word and the voice of the Holy Spirit. Kindly please avoid texting, calling, responding to messages, watching, or scrolling through your mobile phone or the internet while the service is going on. We do understand that in exceptional / rare cases there might be an emergency but, overall, let us focus on the Lord and give due reverence and honour to Him during our time of Worship.

Children - We would like to remind parents and guardians to please keep their eyes out for their children and the young ones while in the church premises. Let us join to help keep them safe and stop them from coming to any kind of harm.

Personal Belongings - Please keep your personal belongings with you while in the building premises.

Rehoboth Building - We would like to ask everyone to please be mindful and intentional about caring for, looking after, and keeping clean and tidy, the house of the Lord. Please avoid bringing food (including sweets, cakes, biscuits, crisps etc) or drinks (except water) into the main sanctuary or leaving any litter behind.

Fire Doors – Please always keep this closed.
Let us all join to do this. We also ask that you please be mindful of the carpets in the building, and especially in the main sanctuary. Let us please keep it clean as much as we can by using the mats as we come into the building. Thank you for your help with this.

We want to be good stewards of the resources God provides us in this House, so we ask that everyone please help with avoiding wastage of any of the church's resources. Please kindly refrain from taking away items designated for the use of all. Thank you for your help with this.

Many thanks for your co-operation.

WOL Mission Statement

'Transforming Lives, Fulfilling Destinies'

A CHURCH WITH PURPOSE ...

To be a God-centred church, developing people to Christ-like maturity and equipping them for their ministry in the church, and life mission in the world.

... AND VISION

To impact the Borough of Lewisham with the gospel of Christ in word and action, and to touch London and the nations of the world.

"Go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the Name of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit, and teaching them to do all that I have commanded you."
(Matthew 28:19-20)

"2025, Our year of seeking the lost"
