Jesus Loves You

God Loves YOU and wants you to have a relationship with Him through His son Jesus.

The Bible says that God so loved the world, that He gave His only Son, Jesus, so that whoever believes in him shall not die, but have eternal life (John 3: 16).

The first step to know more of God is to obey His Word and receive Jesus as your Lord and Saviour, by simply repenting of your sins and believing that Jesus has died on the cross and paid the price for you to be reconciled to God for ever. By doing that, you will receive a new life, the very life of God, within you, and you will become a child of God. If you want to make that step, please see below. These will explain to you more about it. Don't put it off, God has been waiting for you... Today is the day! God bless you.

Message to Word Of Life Church

By Reverend Malcolm Duncan

PURSUIT OF THE HIGH CALLING

Philippians 3:12–14; Ephesians 1:15–19; Revelation 4:1;
Ephesians 4:1–3; Genesis 12:1–3; 2 Thessalonians 1:11–13

Introduction: Thirty Years In, Still Called Up Word of Life Family today we celebrate not only thirty-one years of God's faithfulness to you but also the tenth anniversary of your purchase of this building and we will share in the privilege of dedicating the building to the Lord together. Over thirty years of prayers prayed and answered, songs sung, tears shed, meals shared, the Gospel proclaimed, the broken healed, the wandering found, the weary strengthened. We honour those who planted, who stayed, who served, who gave, who forgave, who led, who followed, who persevered. We give thanks for every life touched, every child dedicated, every saint buried with hope, every baptism, every "yes" to Jesus whispered through trembling lips. And yet—on this special anniversary—we must ask a holy QUESTION:

What now?

Anniversaries can be dangerous. They can seduce us into nostalgia or nudge us into complacency. But the Spirit is saying to us what Christ said to John on Patmos:

"After this I looked, and behold, a door standing open in heaven! … 'Come up here…'" (Revelation 4:1).

Thirty-one years in, there is still an open door and an upward call. Ten years after your purchase, what next? There is still more of Christ to know, more of the Spirit to receive, more of the Father's heart to carry into our city and the nations. Paul puts it this way:

"Not that I have already obtained all this, or have already arrived at my goal, but I press on to take hold of that for which Christ Jesus took hold of me… I press on toward the goal to win the prize of the upward call of God in Christ Jesus."

(Philippians 3:12–14)

This is the heartbeat of our day together today: we give thanks for all that

First Word

God has done, and we press on for all He is yet to do. This is our pursuit of the High Calling. Three Movements of the High Calling
1. Remember the Call — Gratitude and Vision
2. Respond to the Call — Formation and Unity
3. Reach with the Call — Witness and Blessing

LET'S WALK THROUGH THEM TOGETHER.

1) REMEMBER THE CALL — Gratitude and Vision

"Abram, go from your country… to the land I will show you. I will make you into a great nation… and you will be a blessing… and all peoples on earth will be blessed through you."
(Genesis 12:1–3)

Every church has an origin story. Like Abraham's, it begins with a call: "Go… and I will show you." Someone heard God's whisper and obeyed. Someone gave, gathered, risked. This community exists because God called—and people said yes. Remembering that call renews our identity:

• We are a pilgrim people. We exist by promise, not by preference; by Providence, not by personality.
• We are a blessing people. We do not exist for ourselves. We exist so that all peoples might be blessed through us.
• We are a worshipping people. Abraham's "going" was an act of worship. Our "going" must be the same.

Paul's prayer for the Ephesians gives us the inner lens to see this afresh:
"I keep asking that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ… may give you the Spirit of wisdom and revelation, so that you may know him better… that you may know the hope to which he has called you, the riches of his glorious inheritance in his holy people, and his incomparably great power for us who believe."
(Ephesians 1:15–19)

On this special Sunday, we remember:
• The Hope of His Call — Our future is anchored in a risen Christ.
• The Riches of His Inheritance — The Church is God's treasured possession: you are not an afterthought.
• The Power at Work in Us — The same power that raised Jesus from the dead is shaping this community now.

Anniversary Truth #1: We didn't start this by ourselves, and we won't finish it by ourselves. The Author is also the Finisher.

Pause & Reflect
• Where have you seen God's faithfulness over these years?
• When did this church become a "blessing" to you?

• What "open door" is before us now?
Practice: This week, write a letter of gratitude to someone in this fellowship who embodied God's faithfulness for you. Bless them.

2) RESPOND TO THE CALL — Formation and Unity
If remembrance anchors us, response propels us. The upward call demands a downward posture: humility, surrender, and unity.
"I urge you to live a life worthy of the calling you have received. Be completely humble and gentle; be patient, bearing with one another in love. Make every effort to keep the unity of the Spirit through the bond of peace."
(Ephesians 4:1–3)

A 31-year-old church is like a 31-year-old tree: deep roots, strong branches—and the constant need for pruning. Maturity is not "We know how to do church." Ten years of rootedness in this community is important - but what next? Maturity is Christlikeness: humility, gentleness, patience, love, and unity. These are not soft sentiments; they are spiritual disciplines forged in the furnace of real relationships. Unity isn't the absence of difference; it's the presence of the Spirit holding us together in Christ.Paul's words to the Thessalonians take us even further:

"We constantly pray for you, that our God may make you worthy of His calling, and that by His power He may bring to fruition your every desire for goodness and your every deed prompted by faith. We pray this so that the name of our Lord Jesus may be glorified in you, and you in Him…"
(2 Thessalonians 1:11–12)

Notice: God makes us worthy; God brings to fruition; God is glorified. Our part is surrender; His part is sanctification. So the church that presses on is the church that kneels down—in repentance, in dependence, in unity. The church that grows out must first grow deep.

What does "worthy of the call" look like in Word of Life?
• Holiness with warmth: conviction without cruelty, truth without hardness.
• Unity with courage: brave enough to disagree well, patient enough to walk together.
• Service with joy: the towel and the basin before the microphone and the platform.
• Prayer with expectancy: not "if You can," but "since You can."

Anniversary Truth #2: Our greatest apologetic is a community formed into the likeness of Jesus.
Pause & Practice
• Is there anyone you need to forgive, or seek forgiveness from, to "keep the unity of the Spirit"?
• This month, pick one hidden, unglamorous act of service in Word of Life and do it faithfully before God.

3) Reach with the Call — Witness and Blessing

A remembered call and a responsive heart lead to a reaching church—one that keeps moving toward the "open door."
"After this I looked, and behold, a door standing open in heaven! And the first voice… said, 'Come up here…'"
(Revelation 4:1)

Heaven is not closed; the King is not silent; the Spirit is not absent. There is an invitation over us today: "Come up here"—lift your eyes, enlarge your heart, expand your horizon. The upward call always sends us outward: to our neighbours, to the poor, to the margins, to the next generation, and to the nations. And we hear again Paul's holy restlessness:
"One thing I do: forgetting what lies behind and straining forward to what lies ahead, I press on…"
(Philippians 3:13–14)

"Forget" does not mean erase gratitude; it means refuse to be paralyzed by either yesterday's failures or yesterday's successes. Yesterday's grace was real, but it cannot fund tomorrow's mission. Fresh oil is needed.

What does reaching look like for us now?
• Local Presence: A church for this community, not just those who are already in the building—schools, streets, estates, workplaces.
• Mercy & Justice: Advocacy for the voiceless; hospitality for the lonely; practical compassion for the vulnerable.
• Word & Spirit Mission: Proclaim Christ crucified and risen—expecting the Spirit to heal, deliver, and save.
• Next Generation: Not an afterthought, but a front line—equipping children, youth, and young adults to lead now.
• Global Partnership: Bless the nations—give, send, go—because Genesis 12 was never meant to end with us.

Anniversary Truth #3: We are blessed to be a blessing; called upward to be sent outward.

Pause & Practice
• Identify one "open door" in your community that the Lord may be setting before you (a school, a street, a need, a people group).
• As a small group or ministry team, commit to one concrete, sustained act of mission for the next 12 months.
& Staying: Deeply rooted and widely reaching.
