Jesus Loves You

Jesus Loves You and Has a Plan for You

1. God loves the whole world and wants to have a personal relationship with each person.
2. But all people are eternally separated from God because of sin and can do nothing to restore their relationship with God
3. Although God loves everyone, He is a just and Holy God. Because of sin, all are condemned to eternal separation from God in hell.
4. But God sent His Son, Jesus Christ, to this earth to pay the price for sin by dying on the cross in our place. He arose from the dead and ascended to heaven. He is the only way to God
5. The person who puts his faith in Christ receives forgiveness of sin and is reconciled to God through Jesus Christ.
6. To follow Christ means to turn away from sin in repentance and to surrender one's life to Him as Lord and Savior.
7. When someone receives Christ, the Spirit of God comes to live in that person. And then he/she is able to live a life pleasing to God.

First Word

KNOWING GOD AND WHO HE IS TO YOU

By Reverend Rowland Henshaw

Psalm 40:9-10

9 I have proclaimed the good news of righteousness. In the great assembly; Indeed, I do not restrain my lips, O Lord, You Yourself know. 10 I have not hidden Your righteousness within my heart; I have declared Your faithfulness and Your salvation; I have not concealed Your lovingkindness and Your truth from the great assembly.

This month I want to share with you an important aspect of the God we serve. We will be looking at the attributes of God

Many people attend church, pray, worship, and even serve yet cannot clearly answer these three foundational questions:

Who is God to you?
Why do you serve Him?
Why do you trust Him?

Your answers to these questions will determine the strength of your walk with Him. Our God is not like any other. He is the One and Only God, the God who can do and undo, the God who speaks and creation responds, The God who hears, the God who sees, the God who rules in absolute sovereignty.

This month, I want us to look deeply at the attributes of God.

I have realised from Scripture that God does not want us to know Him in a vague, abstract, distant way. Many believers carry a general idea of God, but not a true knowledge of who He really is.

Yet God Himself desires to be KNOWN AND UNDERSTOOD. We might not fully know or understand Him, yet He wants us to make the effort to know and understand Him.

Our walk as believers becomes clearer, lighter, and more stable when we truly KNOW AND UNDERSTAND who God is. KNOW speaks of relationship; to know God is to have experiential knowledge of Him.
UNDERSTAND speaks of discernment, Understanding God means recognising His patterns, His ways, His heart, and His intentions.

First Word

In Jeremiah 9:24 — God's Desire Is Clear

But let him who glories glory in this, that he understands and knows Me, That I am the LORD, exercising lovingkindness, judgment, and righteousness in the earth. For in these I delight," says the LORD.

God's delight is in our knowledge of WHO HE says HE is. KNOW and UNDERSTAND are essential to our walk with God.
Together, they form the foundation of a believer who walks with confidence, stability, and intimacy.

WHY KNOWING & UNDERSTANDING MATTER

Knowing and understanding God shape how we perceive His attributes. This is the secret of mature faith. I trust Him not because I see the reason, but because I know His nature.

JOB — A MAN WHO KNEW AND UNDERSTOOD GOD

Job is a perfect example. He had no clue what was happening in the heavenly realm. He didn't know about the conversation between God and Satan. He didn't understand the spiritual warfare surrounding his life.

Yet he said: "Though He slays me, yet will I trust Him." That statement does not come from a man who is guessing. It comes from a man who knows God. A man who understands God's character. A man who trusts God's heart even when life makes no sense.
Job's faith was not built on explanations — it was built on revelation.

Knowing God produces unshakeable faith. When we know God's attributes. We stop guessing who He is, we stop comparing other people's experiences with ours, we will realise that God's ways are not our ways. We start trusting God with confidence, we will worship Him with understanding and learn to walk Him in true intimacy. Knowing God's attributes transforms your relationship with Him.
Let's take a dive into some of this attribute in a way that strengthens and brings illumination to Who God is.

In Jeremiah 9:24

that he understands and knows Me, That I am the LORD, exercising LOVINGKINDNESS, JUDGMENT, AND RIGHTEOUSNESS in the earth.

Here in this passage God reveals three core attributes He wants His people to truly understand. His Lovingkindness, Justice and Righteousness. These three qualities show us who God is and what He delights in. The Church today must rediscover this balance: God is loving, God is just, and God is righteous — and all three work together in perfect harmony.

THE LOVING GOD

His steadfast, covenant love that never fails. God's love is seen from the very beginning. In Genesis, only a loving God would create man, honour him with authority, and still come to his rescue with grace and mercy after the fall. His love pursues, covers, restores, and redeems.

John 3:16
16 For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son, that whoever believes in Him should not perish but have everlasting life.

Romans 5:8
8 But God demonstrates His own love toward us, in that while we were still sinners, Christ died for us.

THE JUST GOD
God's justice is His perfect, fair, and righteous judgment. Scripture reveals that He always does what is right. In the book of Deuteronomy Moses tells us that God's Justice is Perfect, steady, unchanging, flawless and all His ways are justice; there is no injustice in Him. Everything He does is right, true, and upright.

Deuteronomy 32:4
4 He is the Rock, His work is perfect; For all His ways are justice, a God of truth and without injustice; Righteous and upright is He.

In the book of Genesis when Abraham was interceding for Sodom and Gomorrah, Abraham appeals to God based on His attribute as a God of justice: "Shall not the Judge of all the earth do right?"

Genesis 18:25
Far be it from You to do such a thing as this, to slay the righteous with the wicked, so that the righteous should be as the wicked; far be it from You! Shall not the Judge of all the earth do right?"
Peter also highlights God as One whose judgement is right, He is the One who will judge rightly on the day of judgement.

2 Peter 2:9
9 then the Lord knows how to deliver the godly out of temptations and to reserve the unjust under punishment for the day of judgment,

God is a just God, He confronts evil, defends the oppressed, and judges with perfect fairness. There is no injustice in Him, and every decision He makes is right.

HE IS A RIGHTEOUS GOD
This simply means that God is morally perfect; everything He does is right, pure, and consistent. God does not change His mind, His Word can be relied on at any time, He is faithful and loyal.

Psalm 11:7
For the Lord is righteous, He loves righteousness; His countenance beholds the upright.

Romans 1:16-17
For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ, for it is the power of God to salvation for everyone who believes, for the Jew first and also for the Greek. 17 For in it the righteousness of God is revealed from faith to faith; as it is written, "The just shall live by faith."

Philippians 3:9
"And be found in Him, not having my own righteousness, which is from the law, but that which is through faith in Christ, the righteousness which is from God by faith"

In conclusion Psalm 33: 5 says this about our God-
"The Lord loves righteousness and justice; the earth is full of His unfailing love."

Paul puts it this way in the book of Philippians 3:10-11
10 that I may know Him and the power of His resurrection, and the fellowship of His sufferings, being conformed to His death, if, by any means, I may attain to the resurrection from the dead.

God is calling us to know Him in full, to know Him as He is, to know Him beyond sermons or what people say about Him, but to know Him personally in truth and revelation. God is not hiding Himself from us.

In conclusion Psalm 33: 5 says this about our God-

"The Lord loves righteousness and justice; the earth is full of His unfailing love."

Baptism Service

7- Day Devotional: Who Is He to You?

Rev Rowland Henshaw

"But who do you say that I am?"* — Jesus (Matthew 16:15)
Every generation wrestles with the same question Jesus asked His disciples - "But who do you say that I am?"

Many people today have differing opinions about Who Jesus is

- A great leader
- A wise teacher
- A prophet
- A good man
  A spiritual guru

But Jesus wasn't interested in public opinion. He wanted something deeper — a personal revelation.
When He asked, "Who do men say that I am?", the disciples had plenty of answers.

But when He asked, "Who do YOU say that I am?", only Peter spoke.

Peter said, "You are the Christ, the Son of the living God."
Jesus responded, "Flesh and blood has not revealed this to you, but My Father in heaven."

Revelation is the difference. Until the Father opens your eyes, Jesus will remain who others say He is not who He truly is. And until you know who He truly is, you will never fully know who you are.
So, this month as we look into the attributes of God, I want you to go through this Seven Days devotional discovering Who Jesus is to you.

Who is Jesus to me?
Is He, my Lord?
My Saviour?
My King?
My Friend?
My Brother?
My Christ?
Your answer shapes your identity, your confidence, your worship, and your destiny.

PLEASE START BY PRAYING THIS PRAYER.

Father, reveal Your Son to me in a fresh and living way.
Open my eyes to see Jesus as He truly is the Christ, the Son of the living God. Let this revelation transform my life, my walk, and my purpose. Amen.

READ and MEDITATE on the Scriptures.
MEMORISE them.
Then meditate on who the Word says God is to you
His nature, His promises, His identity revealed in Christ. Let the Scriptures shape your understanding of who He is and who you are in Him.

Day 1 — Jesus, My Christ
Scripture: "You are the Christ, the Son of the living God." — Matthew 16:16
Reflection:
Revelation begins here. Jesus is not just a figure of history; He is God's anointed One. When this truth settles in your heart, everything else aligns identity, purpose, and destiny.
Prayer:
Father, reveal Jesus to me as the Christ, the One sent to save and restore.

Day 2 — Jesus, My Lord
Scripture: "Why do you call Me 'Lord, Lord,' and not do the things which I say?"
Luke 6:46
Reflection:
To call Him Lord is to surrender. It is to let His voice lead, His will guide, and His Word shape your decisions. His Lordship is not pressure — it is freedom.
Prayer:
Lord Jesus, rule in my heart. Teach me to follow You with joy and obedience.

Day 3 — Jesus, My Saviour
Scripture: "For the Son of Man came to seek and to save the lost." Luke 19:10
Reflection:
He didn't wait for you to find Him — He came looking for you. Salvation is not a moment; it is a daily experience of grace, mercy, and restoration.
Prayer:
Jesus, thank You for saving me. Let Your salvation continue to transform my life.

Day 4 — Jesus, My King
Scripture: "Of His kingdom there will be no end."
Luke 1:33

Reflection:
Kings rule by authority, but Jesus rules by love. His kingdom is righteousness, peace, and joy. When you submit to His reign, chaos loses its grip.
Prayer:
King Jesus, reign over my thoughts, my home, my decisions, and my future.

📅 Day 5 — Jesus, My Friend
Scripture: "I have called you friends."
John 15:15
Reflection:
Friendship with Jesus is intimacy without fear. He listens, understands, and walks with you. He is the friend who never withdraws, never betrays, never abandons.
Prayer:
Jesus, draw me into deeper friendship with You. Let me know Your heart.

📅 Day 6 — Jesus, My Brother
Scripture: "He is not ashamed to call them brothers."
Hebrews 2:11
Reflection:
Jesus stands with you. He identifies with your humanity, your struggles, your journey. He is the older Brother who lifts, strengthens, and defends.
Prayer:
Lord, thank You for calling me family. Help me walk in the confidence of belonging.

📅 Day 7 — Jesus, My Identity
Scripture: "For you died, and your life is now hidden with Christ in God."
Colossians 3:3
Reflection:
Who He is to you determines who you become. When Christ is revealed, you are revealed. Identity is not discovered in the world — it is discovered in Him.
Prayer:
Father, let the revelation of Jesus shape my identity, purpose, and destiny.

I pray this seven-day devotional helps you draw closer to God and recognise your true identity in Him. May each day open your heart to deeper revelation, stronger intimacy, and a clearer understanding of who Christ is — and who you are in Christ.

Day 18. Merciful

Prayer: Merciful God, thank You that Your mercy doesn't change based on my performance, but is who You are. Day 19. God Who is Peace

Prayer: God Who is Peace, thank You for providing an antidote for the stress and anxiety I feel. You give me Your presence and teach me how to focus my mind. Thank You for holding me in Your peace even when I'm surrounded by chaos and it doesn't make sense.

Day 21. Intercessor

Prayer: Jesus, my Intercessor, thank You for bridging the gap so I can always come boldly to the Father in prayer. Thank You, Jesus, for praying for me as You know perfectly what is best for my life and what I need in each moment.

Section 4: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit

Day 22. Father God

Day 26. Lord, Master

Prayer: Lord, Master, thank You that You are not like the masters of this world who lord their power over their subordinates. Day 27. Spirit of The Lord

Prayer: Spirit of the Lord, thank You for the gift of You living in me. Help me to listen to Your counsel as I walk through this day and make choices which bring glory to Your Name rather than grieve Your Spirit within me.
