Jesus Loves You

Jesus Loves You and Has a Plan for You

1. God loves the whole world and wants to have a personal relationship with each person.
2. But all people are eternally separated from God because of sin and can do nothing to restore their relationship with God
3. Although God loves everyone, He is a just and Holy God. Because of sin, all are condemned to eternal separation from God in hell.
4. But God sent His Son, Jesus Christ, to this earth to pay the price for sin by dying on the cross in our place. He arose from the dead and ascended to heaven. He is the only way to God
5. The person who puts his faith in Christ receives forgiveness of sin and is reconciled to God through Jesus Christ.
6. To follow Christ means to turn away from sin in repentance and to surrender one's life to Him as Lord and Savior.
7. When someone receives Christ, the Spirit of God comes to live in that person. And then he/she is able to live a life pleasing to God.

THE CALL OF GOD REQUIRES A RESPONSE

By Reverend Rowland Henshaw

Matthew 9:36:

36 But when He saw the multitudes, He was moved with compassion for them, because they were weary and scattered, like sheep having no shepherd.

God does not manipulate people into His service. He does not compel, or, force obedience. Rather, He reveals His heart. He opens our eyes to see what He sees. Jesus looked upon the crowds and saw people who were lost, weary, and in need of a shepherd. Out of that observation came a divine invitation.

37 Then He said to His disciples, "The harvest truly is plentiful, but the labourers are few.

The harvest became the call. The condition of the people became the message. Jesus simply revealed the harvest and asked His disciples to pray. Jesus saw a people, harassed, helpless and lost, without a guide.

Those who truly see what He sees cannot remain indifferent. When God reveals a need, He is often searching for willing hearts who will respond.

Matthew 9:38

38 Therefore pray the Lord of the harvest to send out labourers into His harvest."

The problem is not the harvest, but labourers, labourers who can see what Jesus sees. The need is for compassionate labourers. Men and women who are willing to stop, listen, care, pray, and engage with those who are wandering like sheep without a shepherd. Labourers who are compassionate, labourers who can speak and show compassion to the lost sheep of Lewisham. The lost sheep are not far away. They are in Lewisham, Grove Park, throughout London, and across the nations of the world. They are our neighbours, work colleagues, friends, family members, classmates, and those we pass every day.

In the book of John 4:35, Jesus tells His disciples to lift their eyes. He wants us to take off the veil and see. The harvest is ready, it is ripe. The time is now. Not tomorrow, not next week, not next month, not next year. It is now.

35 Do you not say, 'There are still four months and then comes the harvest'? Behold, I say to you, lift up your eyes and look at the fields, for they are already white for harvest!

The cry of the harvest is not for more programmes, resources, or activities. The cry is for labourers. The harvest remains plentiful. The question is not what is God doing? The question is whether, having seen what Jesus sees, we will willingly respond.

There is a great need in our communities, churches, and families. Many are searching for direction, hope, and truth. Like the crowds Jesus saw, they are longing for a shepherd. The cry of the people is not the issue. The question is: Who will hear the cry? Who will answer God's call? Who will respond to His call.

The harvest is there and will always be there, but the workers are few. May we not only pray for workers but be willing to say, "Here am I, Lord, send me"

Isaiah 6:8.

In Isaiah 6, Isaiah has rare glimpse of heaven. He experienced the holiness, majesty, and beauty of God's presence. In that sacred moment, all Isaiah could do was gaze at God's Holiness, He was captivated by the beauty of His presence. As believers we can sometimes be captivated by what God is doing in the Church building and miss the harvest.

"Whom shall I send, and who will go for Us?" Then I said, "Here am I Send me."

This is God's way. He presents the need. He reveals the assignment. He makes the call known but He waits for a willing heart. The need is great. The cry is loud. The call is clear. The answer may be closer than we think, because God often sends those who are willing to so He can work through them.

"Whom shall I send, and who will go for Us?"

This is God's way. He presents the need. He reveals the assignment. He makes the call known — but He waits for a willing heart.

Ezekiel 22:30

So, I sought for a man among them …….

THE RESPONSE OF A SURRENDERED HEART

Isaiah's answer should be the model for every believer:

"Here am I; send me."

This is the response of someone captured by God's holiness, cleansed by God's mercy, and awakened to God's mission.

In our walk with God:

There is always a call — God revealing His heart, His burden, His need.

There is always a response — our willingness, our surrender, our “yes.” to God’s call. We respond. That is the divine partnership.

Isaiah saw the Lord. Isaiah was cleansed. Isaiah heard the need. Isaiah volunteered. This is the pattern of every true calling.

Paul in 1 Corinthians 3:9 puts it this way:

For we are God’s fellow workers; you are God’s field, you are God’s building.

God reveals the need but waits for the willing. The call is divine — the response is ours. “Here am I; send me.”

“Lift Up Your Eyes” — The Call Always Comes with an Action

In John 4:35 Jesus says:

“Lift up your eyes and look at the fields, for they are white already for harvest.”

Jesus was saying:

Don't just see the need, respond to it.
Many of us see the harvest, recognize the need, and hear the call, yet struggle to respond with action.

Don't just acknowledge the harvest, step into it.
We can become excited talking about the harvest, discussing its possibilities and opportunities, but never actually enter the field.

Don't just talk about souls, reach them.
We are often aware of what is happening in our communities, schools, workplaces, and society, but awareness alone is not enough. We must intentionally reach out to people with the love and message of Christ.

First Word

Don't just say you're willing, move into the field. Many believers are willing in principle, yet personal needs, priorities, and distractions can prevent them from responding to God's call.

As Oswald Chambers observed in My Utmost for His Highest:

"The great controlling factor is not the needs of the people, but the command of Jesus……. The goal is to be true to Him- to carry out His plans"

The needs around us are real and overwhelming, but Jesus never called His disciples to be driven merely by human need. He called them to be governed by His voice and obedient to His commission. The harvest is plentiful, the labourers are few, and the question is not whether there is a need, but whether we will obey the One who sends us.

A response to our high calling is the doing, not just the saying.

Heaven is not moved by good intentions. Heaven is moved by obedience. Heaven is moved by action. Heaven is moved by the one who says, "Here am I — send me," and then gets up and goes. Isaiah responded with his mouth, but he also responded with his life.

The disciples responded with their feet. The Samaritan woman responded with her testimony. The early church responded with their boldness. Every divine call requires a human response.

God is still asking, "Whom shall I send?" and heaven is still listening for those who will answer, "Here am I. Send me" (Isaiah 6:8). The challenge before us is simple: Will we merely observe the harvest, or will we enter the field?
God is waiting for our response.

A HEART OF THANKSGIVING

By Pastor Folake Henshaw

This month as we reflect on how far the Lord has brought us this year, let us pause and offer Him heartfelt thanks. If it had not been for the Lord on our side, where would we be? He has been faithful through every season, and He deserves all our gratitude, praise and worship.

We thank God for the precious gift of salvation, for His amazing grace and for His mercies, which are new every morning. We thank Him for keeping, protecting and preserving us. It is by His goodness that we are alive and well today. His love and compassion have never failed us, and His grace has carried us through every challenge.

We thank the Lord for His power at work in our lives and for the miracles we have received. We are grateful for every occasion on which He has healed, delivered and restored us. We thank Him for shielding us and our families from death, destruction and calamity. He has given His angels charge over us and granted us safe journeys within and outside the nation.

We give thanks for our families and friends, and for everyone God has used to support, encourage and bless us. We are grateful for our church family and especially for WOL Church, KTLCC. We thank God for the strength He has given us to serve as workers in His house and for the privilege of being part of His Kingdom.

We thank Him for His transforming work in our lives and families. We are grateful for the souls He has saved through our witness, for those who have been baptized in water and for those who have received the baptism of the Holy Spirit in our church. We thank Him for His gifts in our lives and for every opportunity He has given us to use them for His glory.

When the enemy came in like a flood, the Lord raised a standard against him. He has been our refuge, our shield and our defender. We thank Him for the peace we have enjoyed, for the presence of the Holy Spirit in our lives and for His Word, which has been a lamp to our feet and a light to our path. We are grateful for His guidance and direction in every area of our lives.

We thank God for our jobs, careers and businesses, and for revealing Himself as Jehovah Jireh, our Provider. We praise Him for His abundant provision, the favour we have received, the doors He has opened and the unexpected blessings that have come our way. We also thank Him for helping our children to excel and for granting them wisdom, strength and success.

Our God has been good to us at all times. Therefore, let us offer Him thanks and praise, not only for what He has done but also for who He is. May our hearts remain filled with gratitude, and may our lives continually testify to His goodness and faithfulness.

Lord, we thank You. You have done all things well, and we are deeply grateful. To You alone be all the glory, honour and praise. Amen.

Exhortation

Imagine… No Excuses

Rev Rowland Henshaw

Scripture Reading

"Draw near to God, and He will draw near to you."
— James 4:8

There are moments in our walk with God when we feel the distance. Not because He has moved, but because life, emotions, and excuses have quietly built a wall between our hearts and His presence.

Recently, I found myself speaking to the Lord about this very thing. I felt my intimacy with Him wasn't where I longed for it to be. I began offering reasons — valid ones, human ones — but excuses nonetheless.

And then the Lord dropped a simple, piercing thought into my heart:

Imagine…

If God had an excuse,

there would be no Saviour.

If Jesus had an excuse,

there would be no Mediator.

If the Holy Spirit had an excuse,

Jesus would still be in the grave.

Just imagine.

The entire story of redemption is a story of no excuses.
The Trinity moved toward us — intentionally, sacrificially, relentlessly.
Love did not delay.
Love did not negotiate.
Love did not postpone.

When We Feel Like Pulling Away

There are days when prayer feels heavy,
when the Word feels distant,
when fellowship feels optional,

when church feels like an effort,
and when doing our own thing feels easier.
But before we settle into those feelings,
the Spirit whispers:

“Imagine if We had given excuses.”

Where would you be?
What hope would you have?
What future would you claim?

A Call Back to Intimacy

God is not condemning you.
He is inviting you.
He is reminding you that intimacy is not built on perfection — it is built on pursuit.
He pursued you without excuse.
Now He invites you to pursue Him without delay.
Not out of guilt,
but out of gratitude.
Not out of pressure,
but out of love.

Prayer

Father, thank You for pursuing me without excuse.
Forgive me for the moments I have allowed distractions, emotions, or excuses to pull me away from You.
Stir my heart again.
Restore my hunger for Your presence.
Teach me to draw near, even when I don’t feel like it.
Thank You for the grace that always welcomes me home.
In Jesus’ name, Amen.

Reflection for Today

What excuse have you been giving God lately?
Lay it down. Step toward Him.
He is already stepping toward you.

Prayer points:

- Pray that the teaching will be clear, practical and firmly rooted in God's Word.
- Pray for the Holy Spirit to replace fear and uncertainty with courage, compassion and wisdom.
- Pray that every member will recognize that witnessing is a calling for the whole church, not only for a few people.
- Pray for teachers and leaders to equip people to explain the hope they have with gentleness and respect.

Declaration: We are empowered by the Holy Spirit to be Christ's witnesses. We will not be ashamed or afraid; we will be prepared, compassionate and ready to share the Gospel. Each of us has a place in God's mission, and we willingly say, "Here am I. Send me." In Jesus' name, Amen.

WEEK 2 — SATURDAY 14 NOVEMBER: THE POWER OF OUR TESTIMONY

Focus: Learning to share a clear, Christ-centred testimony that gives God glory and helps others see His transforming grace.

- Pray that shame, fear and hesitation will be broken, and that many more people will volunteer to take part.
- Pray that every testimony will point listeners to Jesus and awaken hope, faith and a desire for salvation.

Declaration: By the blood of the Lamb and the word of our testimony, we will proclaim what the Lord has done. Our stories will exalt Jesus, strengthen the church and open hearts to the Gospel. We will speak with humility, clarity and boldness. In Jesus' name, Amen.

WEEK 3 — SATURDAY 21 NOVEMBER: FAITH IN ACTION ON THE STREETS

Focus: Moving from preparation to participation—going into the community in teams to pray, listen and share Christ with grace.

- Pray for strong teamwork, clear communication and care for one another throughout the outreach.
- Pray that God will prepare people to listen and that every seed of truth will be received in good soil.

Declaration: Our feet are ready to carry the Good News. We go in the authority of Jesus, led by the Spirit and clothed with compassion. God has prepared divine appointments, and His Word will accomplish the purpose for which He sends it. We will go together, speak graciously and expect fruit. In Jesus' name, Amen.

WEEK 4 — SATURDAY 28 NOVEMBER: MASS EVANGELISM INVASION

Focus: A united, church-wide mobilization with greater participation, coordinated ministry teams and expectation for a harvest of souls.

- Pray for an abundant harvest, open hearts, salvation, healing, restoration and lasting community impact.
- Pray for divine order, safety, favourable conditions, sufficient resources and no hindrance or delay.
- Pray that those who have not yet participated will respond wholeheartedly and take their place in the mission.

Declaration: We stand together with one spirit and one purpose for the faith of the Gospel. We plant and water, but God gives the increase. Every team will function effectively, every willing worker will be strengthened, and the Word of God will not return empty. We declare a joyful, orderly and fruitful harvest to the glory of Jesus. Amen.

Evangelism Worship Team

Scriptures: Psalm 96:2–3; Acts 16:25–26; 2 Chronicles 20:21–22.
Pray for a Spirit-led worship team that will exalt Jesus, proclaim His salvation and prepare hearts to receive the Gospel. May every song be biblical, clear and Christ-centered, bringing unity, courage and freedom as the church ministers in the community.

Team Declaration: Every ministry team is joined together as one body under Christ. We will serve faithfully, communicate clearly and care for people with excellence and love. No visitor, worker or new believer will be neglected. Through every role, Christ will be seen, people will be strengthened and lasting fruit will remain. In Jesus' name, Amen.

Team Profile

Daren Woodham

My name is Daren Woodham and I am the Venue Manager at Word of Life Church.

Here is a short testimony of how I came to the Lord.

To understand who I was, I have to go back to the beginning. I was not a nice man. I was vengeful, full of wrath and hate, with no love for anyone, and lost in my own self-destruction.

I can understand and relate to what Paul the Apostle felt when the Lord called him on that very road where he was blinded and then used him to do glorious works.

I came to WOL in November 2021, but I was called by name in early spring of that same year.

I had never heard the Lord's voice before that early morning, but I knew whose voice it was.

Isaiah 43:1
"But now thus saith the Lord that created thee, O Jacob, and he that formed thee, O Israel, Fear not: for I have redeemed thee, I have called thee by thy name; thou art mine."

I have always said that whatever you pray for to the Father, the enemy hears it too. The enemy tried to get to me through other false religions to steer me away from the path with false doctrines and false witnesses.

But the Lord has always blessed me with discernment from an early age, and I tested the spirit of deception and saw through its plan.

I clearly remember saying to the Lord, "I asked for Your help, and I get sent that."

One week later, Brother George came to my house, and upon talking to him, every word he spoke felt right in my spirit. I felt drawn to what he spoke and wanted to know more.
But Brother George nearly never made it to my house that day, as the enemy did not want him to come to me. Brother George was attacked by the enemy; the enemy did not want me to come to the Lord.

But through the Lord's strength and the will He placed upon Brother George, he weathered the storm that was thrown against him. He came to my house and delivered the message he was meant to deliver.

I attended the Wednesday service in November and gave myself to the Lord that very day. I went home full of joy and told my wife everything I had heard and learned that day. I attended a few Wednesday services before attending my first Sunday service.

I remember saying to the Lord, "Your house needs repairs and painting. Give me a chance, and I will breathe life into this tired building."

I started fixing things with Brother Arnold, and I welded metal doors that were broken. In time, I was given the opportunity to become Venue Manager, which opened the door for me to fix everything I could see that was broken, as well as work on some projects that were already being discussed. I also have my wife, who is my apprentice in repairs.

I've been referred to as "Bezalel" in Exodus 31:3.

"And I have filled him with the Spirit of God, in wisdom, in understanding, in knowledge, and in all manner of workmanship."

Hobbies and Interests

Fixing things and my never-ending addiction to power tools!

My favourite saying is:

"You have to break things to make them better."

I am blessed to have a loving wife and kids, and not forgetting my brothers and sisters at Word of Life Church, as everyone has played a part in helping me on this five-year journey, helping me become who I am today and not who I was five years ago.

I give praise and thanks to the Lord for blessing me and for picking me up when I have fallen.
